Dingac & Postup

Dingac & Postup

Croatia

History dictates that there are two quite separate vineyard areas in Croatia. One lies north, from the Plesivica Mountain in the west to the Danube in the east. The other lies south, from western Istria to Dubrovnik. Those two areas are further divided into a total of 11 sub-regions, with the most famous being the one called Vinarija Dingac, the Dingac Winery, located in Potomje on the Peljesac peninsula.

These Premium Red Wines from the Middle and South Dalmatia's Coastal Vineyards are of exceptional quality and are available exclusively from us.

Dingac

Extremely distinct and sumptuous bouquet, tinged with the fine aroma of the Plavac valley.

Postup

Dark, ruby-red, full-bodied, harmonious and with just a hint of dryness that is mellowed by its sugar content.

Dingac is available in
