Napoleon V.S.O.P. Brandy

Delpech Fougerat Napoleon Brandy

France

This Estate Vintage Brandy has been born of the oldest brandies that dates back to the early 1800's. The Estate of Fontgireau is located in the very heart of "La Petite Champagne, located 20 kilometers from Cognac, where the ideal amount of sunshine and climatic conditions exist for producing the highest quality vintages. Since 1777, the making and aging of this fine Brandy has been held in the name of one family. Since that time, the family name has appeared as a mark of the highest quality and good taste. The distillation process, using only aged oak-wood barrels, is executed with careful precision, and under the experienced guidance of Mr. Jacques Delpech, in the company's own cellars. Today, the great Brandy- Delpech Fougerat is being offered exclusively to only the finest enterprises so that they too may enjoy the taste of greatness. Napoleon Brandy comes from the special Old Reserve and is aged 15-20 years. The taste is rounded, smooth with a balanced rancio (aged liqueur wine). Experience the taste of tradition yourself with a bottle of our fine Brandy.
