Singha

Singha Beer

Thailand

Thailand is considered one of the World's most exotic Countries. In America there is a new, great interest in the Cuisine of Thailand. This new interest in Thai Cuisine has also put the spotlight on SINGHA. SINGHA is the most renowned beer of Thailand, and rightly so. SINGHA is a Pilsner style beer made from a recipe that utilizes only the finest ingredients including PURE WATER, AROMATIC HOPS, YEAST and BARLEY. The flavor is light, crisp and refreshing making SINGHA perfect for the complex and fanciful flavors of favorite dishes such as PAD THAI, and a wonderful match for the entrees as well. SINGHA goes down smooth and is never heavy or challenging, making it a great everyday beer as well!

Singha has a yellow gold hue with light aromas of sweet bready pale malts that follow through on a medium bodied palate with crisp, bitter hops on the finish. This has a great balance of assertive hops that cut through the all malt mouthfeel.

Rated as Exceptional by the Beverage Testing Institute and awarded a Gold Medal in the World Beer Championships.
