Stroh Rum

Stroh Original Rum 60 & 80

Austria

Towards the end of the 1830's Sebastian Stroh was the first Austrian to start producing liqueurs and "rosoglio" cordials, specialties, which had been hitherto more or less unknown. Word of Stroh's quality products soon spread and the company became a success. A hundred years ago, Sebastian Stroh was already a household name throughout the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The company went on to gain worldwide recognition at the 1900 Paris World Fair where it was awarded the gold medal for excellence. This quality remains the hallmark of Stroh today. The company exports its products all over the world to the pleasure and acclaim of connoisseurs.

The Stroh 80, the ultimate flavor, a characteristically Austrian taste and unique quality which makes Original Stroh a classic. Stroh Original 80 (160° proof) spiced rum is made from top-quality ingredients. The millions of bottles bought all over the world every year are proof of its popularity.

Top chefs in first class international restaurants and millions of households have discovered how Stroh gives the finishing touch to delicate desserts and pastries. When you are mixing cocktails, too, Stroh is an indispensable ingredient and its special aromatic flavor will enhance a whole variety of long drinks. Stroh's quality rum is known throughout the world as "A Drop of Austrian Culture".

Also available Stroh Original Rum 60 (120° proof - 60% Alc./Vol.).

Stroh Original Rum 80 and 60 are available in cases of 12 x 750ml bottles.
